

HELPING LITTLE LEARNERS GROW CALM, CONFIDENT, AND CONNECTED

READY TO GROW ATLANTA

FOR EDUCATORS

Ready to Grow Atlanta is an initiative from Atlanta Public Schools designed to support the healthy development of preschool aged children by building strong, aligned partnerships between families, early childhood educators, and community organizations.

Ready to Grow for Educators includes monthly expert led trainings, optional coaching sessions, and classroom resources. This program is FREE for all APS Pre-K teachers and community-based Early Learning Center Teachers in Atlanta.

MONTHLY TRAININGS

- 9:00AM-1:00PM at The APS Student and Family Support Hub
- Topics include SEL, behavior, trauma-informed care, and more
- Continuing education credits available
- For more information on session topics and expert speakers check out the Educator Training Schedule.

COACHING SESSIONS

- Opt into personalized coaching sessions focused on classroom management (Tier 1), targeted behavior supports (Tier 2), or individualized student strategies (Tier 3).
- Sessions are collaborative, strengths-based, and designed to meet your specific classroom needs.

CLASSROOM RESOURCES

- Educators will receive a set of high-quality, evidence-based materials to support SEL and behavior in the classroom, including Generation Mindful's Time-In Toolkit, SEL lesson plans, activity books, and BoysTown's Best Me I Can Be! book series and calming cards.
- These tools are designed to make SEL integration easy and engaging during daily routines, circle time, and transition moments.
