

Executive Summary

Over the next three years, GEEARS will build on and enhance our existing high-impact work to support Georgia's young children and their families.

GEEARS will focus on three key issue areas that, when taken together, offer a holistic approach to supporting young children.

To make progress in these issue areas, we will pursue four organizational priorities that leverage our existing strengths and capacity.

Across this work, we will deepen our commitment to equity, ensuring equity drives the issues we prioritize, the strategies we pursue, and the metrics to which we hold ourselves accountable.
